

Cambridge English Placement Test (English Version)

Terms and Conditions

1. Examination candidates must pay a THB 300 fee, according to Naresuan University Announcement regarding “The Registration Fee for Cambridge English Placement Test” issued on October 13th 2012 in either payment option as follows:

1.1 Payment by cash at any KTB (Krungthai Bank) branch in Thailand to the current deposit account for “Naresuan University (Registration Fee for CEPT)”, Account Number 857-6-00060-1. There is a THB 10 for banking service fee.

1.2 To get a full receipt for reimbursement, please make a payment at Naresuan University Language Centre, CITCOMS Building, Naresuan University only.

2. The application will be complete after a full payment has been paid to the university within the date and time set by Naresuan University Language Centre (NULC) only.

3. If examination candidates are absent on the exam date for which they are registered, NULC will not refund the test fee nor reschedule for another exam. In addition, if examination candidates are absent for their non-fee test, they forfeit this option.

4. NULC reserves the rights to not refund the fees in all cases.

 No one is allowed to enter the testing room after 15 minutes. *****